

'There's a beautiful thing afoot called SAMT. Service Area Management Training. Absolutely to make sure that everybody who is invited to come and participate has the best time. And it's just started. Slowly, you will see its effects. Because participation is important. There's practice of Knowledge, there's listening to the Master, and there's participation. And it's happening.' Maharaji, Atlanta, USA, 28/6/07.

Interested in training to be a SAM?

Maharaji has devised a training for Service Area Managers (SAMs) whose specific responsibility is to ensure that everybody who comes to participate has an enjoyable time. To find out more about Service Area Manager Training, please send your name and Smartcard number OR Keys username and PAN to SthPacific.SAMT@gmail.com

Wanting to help in a way that suits you?

There will be many opportunities to help before and during the forthcoming international event at Amaroo. To find opportunities to suit your skills and inclinations, be sure too check the Participation Page at www.amaroo.org regularly.

Other opportunities to help may be communicated via national and local e-mailing lists, so be sure your address is kept current. Changes to your contact details can be sent to mailinglist@elanvital.info

Have a Project, need a SAM?

If you are responsible for a project that requires volunteers, you can request the assistance of a trained Service Area Manager (SAM) by writing to ASK4SAM.SPac@gmail.com

'Participation should be fun. It really, really, really should be fun. And that's what I want to make it. Make it fun for everyone to do.' Maharaji, Burbank, USA, 21/1/07.
